6 and 8 EAST THIRD STREET, MASONIC TEMPLE BUILDING.

STAYED THE PARTING GUEST.
Old Bona
You're glorious
We write in winter time,
But in the spring
We want to sing
Of birdies in our rhyme.
So go away
And stay away,
No longer o'er us gloat,
Because we're broke
And have in soak
Our faithful overcoat.

William Clarkson and Mary Mills, colored, were granted marriage license yesterday.

The inventory and appraisal of the estate of C. C. Williams, deceased, amounts to $3,484.52.

Miss Elizabeth Cralle and Miss Lizzie D. Quaintance left for Flemingsburg this morning to attend the Commencement exercises which take place this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The Front Street Sunday-school conducted by Major Ficklin for the benefit of the Newsboys, has disbanded for its annual summer vacation. The next term will begin November 1st. All desiring to be enrolled will call at once on Shelby White, Superintendent and produce a certificate of good character.

A New Orleans dispatch of May 21 says: "The body of T. P. Wiggins, a commission merchant, whose home was at 842 Laurel street, Cincinnati, was found floating in the Mississippi river 36 miles South of New Orleans at an early hour this morning. His death is supposed to have been accidental." The deceased was a cousin of Mrs. Rebecca Hamilton of Front street, this city.

Yesterday afternoon Sheriff Mackey, assisted by Policemen Bradford and Ryan, arrested Pless Mason, Ed. and Bill Hilderbrand near the Cemetery in the East End. The two former were placed in Jail and the latter let go. The gang was drunk and terrorizing the people in that vicinity. They were all more or less beat up, and had evidently been in a terrible fight somewhere. They said they had been in Cincinnati.

ANOTHER DELAY

Was The City Attorney Derelict In Not Discovering the Error Before He Did?

Indications in the early spring pointed to an extraordinary busy season in the building line in this city. There was a rosy tinge to affairs about the time the trees were budding—but a black frost, apparently, has nipped things in the bud. Then it was we were to have in course of construction during the summer months a new Catholic Church, two new school houses and some more brick streets.

The only one of the whole combine who knew exactly where he was at, is Father Jones, who had his plans matured and the wherewith to carry out his program, and with him things are as mild as a May morning and the wheels of industry in his bailiwick are humming in a lively manner.

The other contemplated enterprises are in a bog, as it were, and side-tracked for the time being at least, all owing to a lack of preparedness, or whatever else you might call it.

Several weeks ago an Ordinance authorizing the construction of brick streets was presented in Council and passed unanimously its first reading; last night at an adjourned session the Ordinance was again read for the second time and when placed upon its passage had the hair singed off its back by receiving only a majority vote when the law requires a two-thirds vote. The vote stood 7 ayes to 4 nays.

The City Attorney laid the mine that blew up the ship. It came about when he suggested that there be incorporated in the Ordinance a notice of the amount of assessment apportioned the Street Railway Company, as such precaution would give the City a better standing in the Court of Appeals, should the assessment be resisted, as it is said it will be, and the case carried to the higher Court.

The opinion of the City Attorney is directly opposite to that of the learned Counsel who prepared the Ordinance for the construction of Second and Third streets.

As matters now stand the brick street improvement and the building of the new school houses are in a rather chaotic state. What the outcome will be remains to be seen.

"Sleeping Beauty and the Beast" at Theatorium Wednesday and Thursday afternoon and evening.

The Mite Society of the Third Street M. E. Church will meet this afternoon at 2:30 with Miss Bierbower.

Large crowds continue at Theatorium. Change of program today. Will present that great play "Sleeping Beauty and the Beast." This is a rare treat for Maysville people, so don't miss it. Admission 5c.

While at the Lawrence creek wreck last Friday taking pictures of the incident, a Cincinnati photographer found half of a gold bracelet belonging to one of the lady victims, possibly Mrs. Kate Woolsey, who lost her bracelet. The many surprising features of the wreck are still coming to light. Undoubtedly, the reason that more people were not killed was because the coach, when it tumbled over the bank, fell in the soft mud at the bottom and the five victims who were pinned under the wreck, were saved by the pliant mud from worse injury or death.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN

Was a Brief Visitor to Maysville Yesterday—En Route East

The Hon. William Jennings Bryan, editor and political oracle of Lincoln, Neb., and who set the world aflame in 1896 with his propaganda of 16 to 1 and bimetalism "without the aid or consent of any Nation on earth," was a distinguished, but a very brief visitor in Maysville yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Bryan was a passenger on the C. and O.'s No. 2, F. F. V., which arrived here from Cincinnati at 1:36 p. m.

The erstwhile and two-times standard bearer of the National banner of Democracy, arrived and departed without a salute being fired or a trumpet sounded in his honor. His visit of course being entirely unexpected.

How different it was in those dark old "free silver days" of 1896, when the pall of Bryanism was hanging like a bird of ill-omen over an otherwise magnificent country.

Mr. Bryan is the same genial, but misguided Populist-statesman, and was en route East to deliver a lecture.

He has the call for the Democratic Presidential stakes next year, and the same old fight will be made over again.

DECORATION DAY

Hallowed and Revered by a Grateful Nation—Exercises Tomorrow

The program as arranged for tomorrow's exercises will be as follows. The members of Joseph Heiser Post together with all ex-soldiers and others contemplating taking part, will meet at Grand Army Hall, Cox Building, at 1 o'clock sharp and proceed thence to the Cemetery where the ritualistic service in memory of the dead at the monument and scattering of flowers will take place. After which the procession will re-form and march to Beechwood Park and assemble in the auditorium where an address will be delivered by Captain E. W. Evans of Portsmouth.

NELSON W. EVANS of Portsmouth.

The orator of the day is said to be a fine speaker and it is hoped our citizens will turn out and hear him. Appropriate songs will be sung and there will be short talks from other prominent Grand Army men.

There are 121 Federal soldiers buried in the Maysville Cemetery and 20 in the Catholic Cemetery at Washington, and each mound will be crowned with a wreath as a token of remembrance and affection.

The Street Railway Company will have ample cars in service, so there need be no apprehension on that account. All who can should attend.

G. A. MCCARTHEY.

John Koontz, a fire-eater with a circus, was terribly burned at Paducah while giving an exhibition for the benefit of some of his friends. His head was enveloped in flames and his glasses alone saved both his eyes from being destroyed.

The Directors of the Carlisle Cigar Company Monday elected Mr. D. N. Peebles of this city, as regular Manager, and decided to put the factory in operation by the first of June. This is the first enterprise undertaken by the Carlisle Commercial Club.

SONG RECITAL.

Miss Florence Pearce Wadsworth will give a song recital at Beechwood Park, on Thursday evening May 30th.

THE Gov. isn't worrying so much about the Louisville lid as he is about the safety of his own Senatorial lid.

THE Gov. might appoint big JIM HARGIS, his Breathitt county friend, Mayor of Louisville, Chief of Police, or something equally as good. JIM deserves recognition from Frankfort.

SOON after JIM HARGIS was released he met his former Jurymen on the street and took them to the Leland Hotel bar, where he bought drinks for them. Think of this, Democratic lovers of Justice and Temperance in Old Kentucky!

UNCLE SAM and General KUROKI, performing the Alphonse and Gaston act, have about reached the limit of endurance. Let's call a halt in our diplomatic salaams and meaningless gesticulations to the little yellow men. We need a little bit more of our civilities for our home folks and a little less for the foreign fakers.

THE Democratic Court of Appeals declares that the Democratic Clerks at Louisville stole and destroyed ballots. A party must be getting mighty bad when the highest Court fastens such opprobrium upon it. This is the same Court that has declared three times that Democratic Judges and Democratic Juries haven't given CALEB POWERS a square deal. Notice that JIM HARGIS always gets a Democratic square deal and then set up the drinks.

By some queer and curious system of "ratiocination," not familiar to the average Editor, Pap WALTON, of The Kentucky State Journal, figures it out that the recent decision of the Court of Appeals "instead of hurting the Democratic state ticket, it will be worth many thousands of votes to it." By the same analogy, if BILL JONES is convicted in Court of stealing a horse, saddle and a sack of corn, the verdict is at once a send-off for the whole Jones family and ought to make them scores of friends. Br'er WALTON, since when did stealing ever increase the popularity of an individual or a party? Yoursystem of political ethics is founded upon some ding strange and unheard-of course of logic. But as the Democratic party in Kentucky has resolved itself into the simple device: "B-e-c-k-h-a-m," around which the Courts and everything else whirls, it is not worth while saying anything further in the premises. The decision of the august Democratic Court of Appeals in the Louisville cases is received with grateful expressions of approval by the Republicans of Kentucky. But why, if a great wrong was perpetrated at Louisville, did not the Court order somebody punished for it? Is Mayor BARTH, and the other receivers of stolen goods to go Scott free? There can be no crime without a criminal, and vice versa.

LESSER OF TWO EVILS.

The burglar's wife was in the witness box and the prosecuting attorney was conducting a vigorous cross-examination.

"Madam, you are the wife of this?"

"Yes."

"You knew he was a burglar when you married him?"

"Yes."

"How did you come to contract a matrimonial alliance with such a man?"

"Well," the witness said sarcastically, "I was getting old and had to choose between a lawyer and a burglar." The cross-examination ended there.

ROBERT LEE STRAUS.

It will surprise Maysville people generally to learn that Master Robert Lee Straus, only son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Straus of Fourth street, though quite young, already gives promise of developing into one of the great violinists of the country. It gives us pleasure to commend his efficiency as far as our limited knowledge of music goes and to say for him, that with the proper technical education, combined with his native talent, we see nothing to prevent him from taking his position, well merited, among the musical artists and prodigies who have made the world resound with sweet harmony and the spontaneous applause which follows the artistic work of the genius. Robert was born in Danville, Ky., November 5th, 1894, but has spent all his life in Maysville except the first two years. He seems to have a natural command of the violin, has two good instruments, one of them being a violin of old world make with a tone like a Strad. We trust that the public may soon be given a chance to hear this rising local musician.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

In the year 1675 King Charles II., of England, founded the Royal Observatory at Greenwich in order that astronomical observations might be made for the assistance of sailors. The history of the observatory has been the history of chronology and of this practical side of astronomy. Its work and its standards have become distinctly international. THE CHANGE OF LIFE

Sensible Advice to Women from Mrs. Henry Lee, Mrs. Fred Certia and Mrs. Pinkham.

MRS. HENRY LEE

MRS. FRED CERTIA

Owing to modern methods of living not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms. This is the most critical period of her whole existence and every woman who neglects the care of her health at this time invites disease and pain. When her system is in a deranged condition or she is predisposed to apoplexy or congestion of any organ, the tendency is at this period likely to become active and with a host of nervous irritations make life a burden. At this time also cancers and tumors are more liable to form and begin their destructive work. Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, melancholia, dread of impending evil, palpitation of the heart, irregularities, constipation and dizziness are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life when this great change may be expected. Mrs. Fred Certia, 1014 So. Lafayette Street, So. Bend, Ind., writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

After suffering untold misery for three years during Change of Life I heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wrote you of my condition, and began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and followed your advice, and to-day I am well and happy. I can now walk anywhere and work as well as anyone, and for years previous I had tried but could not get around without help. I consider your medicine a sovereign balm for suffering women.

Women passing through this critical period should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If there is anything about your case you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice. It is free and has guided thousands to health.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health, actually thousands of women, you cannot well say without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." It is your duty to yourself and family to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

WORMS

"I had for years suffered from what medical men called Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach. In August I purchased a box of Cascarets and was surprised to find that I had 'em'—yes—a wiggling, squirming mass left me. Judge our doctor's surprise when I showed him thirty feet, and in another day the remainder about the same length of a tape worm that had been sapping my vitality for years. I have enjoyed the best of health ever since. I trust this testimonial will appeal to other sufferers."

TESTED AND PROVEN

There Is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation

For months Maysville readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit. A. W. McClanahan of A. W. and B. P. McClanahan, grocers, at 121 Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I can endorse Doan's Kidney Pills more heartily today than I did five years ago when I told the Maysville people that this medicine had cured me of severe kidney trouble and backache that had bothered me for twenty years and seemed to be growing worse all the time. I repeat that I can more confidently recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today than I did in that testimonial because my cure has been permanent and I have had no kidney trouble for nearly five years. As proof that I am a firm believer in Doan's Kidney Pills I will be only too pleased to reiterate the above to anyone who may inquire."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
